Sir Joseph Flavelle, Bart.,

Ottawa.

My dear Sir Joseph:

You have doubtless heard that Sir John and Lady Eaton are giving $500,000 to the University for the appointment of a full-time man in Medicine and the general development of the chair in medicine and children's diseases. While the gift has not yet been formally made to the Governors and no appointment has gone through, we have decided after very wide inquiries to nominate cordially Duncan Graham, now Colonel and medical officer in charge of our Basingstone Hospital for this position. He has been for many years our lecturer in Bacteriology, and is an extremely promising young man.

In order that he may be able to carry out his teaching to the best effect it is felt that he should have full control in regard to the organising of the services in the Hospital. If I am not mistaken you have always been of opinion that there should be one directing head instead of the three heads of services as at present in medicine. The opportunity for this presents itself now as it probably never would again inasmuch as Dr. McPhedran has resigned most of his work, Dr. Andrew Gordon is dead, General Fotheringham is at Ottawa, and Graham Charters has been overseas so long, and probably we would not find serious difficulty in dispensing with his work as head of the service. You will of course realise that Sir John and Lady Eaton in giving such a large sum are very anxious that everything possible should be done in order to make the new move a success, and co-operation with the Toronto General Hospital would be one of the essentials for this. When you are next in Toronto I should like to talk the matter over with you.

With kind regards, I am,

Yours sincerely,

President.

OFFICE OF THE CHAIRMAN

My dear Sir Robert:

I have your letter of the 16th instant. I am pleased to have your confirmation of what hitherto has only been a rumor, that Sir John and Lady Eaton were giving as large a sum as $500,000 to the University for the appointment of a full-time man in Medicine and the general development of the chair in medicine and children's diseases.

I note your proposal that the Hospital should co-operate by placing your nominee in full charge of the medical service in the Hospital.

As it is a matter which introduces a somewhat fundamental change, I assume that you do not desire me to make immediate reply. Under existing conditions I am only in Toronto on the first Wednesday of each month. Where necessity presses I can go at any time. If your purpose would be served I will see you

My dear Sir Joseph:

I told the Secretary of the Alumni Association that you were unwilling to become a member of the Alumni Memorial Committee, but doubtless the letter that you enclose to me was issued before I spoke to him. I regret your judgment in this matter, but we must only acquiesce.

With kind regards, I am,

Yours sincerely,

President.

My Dear Sir Joseph:

I am sorry that I did not in my letter acknowledge what you said with regard to the cancellation of the Collins Scholarship. I quite understood from your letter that if there is any one to whom the scholarship should be given it would this year be awarded on the increased amount and that this would be the final scholarship and that the announcement will be withdrawn from the forthcoming Calendar.

With kind regards, I am,

Yours sincerely,

President.
